

LYNNE SUSAN BASSIS, ESQ.

Mediator

Lynne Bassis is an accomplished mediator and mediation trainer. A dispute resolution pioneer in California, she brings her worldview of mediation to the mediation table and to the classroom. She has been named a “SuperLawyer” for 2007-2011 in the field of alternative dispute resolution, an honor bestowed upon just five percent of Southern California attorneys.

PRACTICE AREAS

Employment, Disability/Access, Elder Law, Professional Negligence, Business, Partnership and Commercial, Government Tort Liability, Attorney-Client disputes.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION EXPERIENCE

The quality of Lynne’s services shows that she “is one of the most experienced mediators in California,” states prominent plaintiff’s employment counsel.” Respected defense counsel comments that she is “very professional, knowledgeable about the applicable law and practical-minded,” observing that “her abilities as a seasoned employment and disability mediator are evident.” She is quick to zero in on the heart of the dispute and move the case along to settlement. By some she has been told she is “patient,” by others “relentless.”

Lynne is a mediation trainer for Dispute Resolution Services of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, where she has provided mediation training for thousands of lawyers and other professionals during the last 14 years.

Lynne has been an attorney for 25 years. In the private sector, Lynne worked for municipal defense and employment-labor law firms; in the public sector, she prosecuted attorneys and served as counsel to the California Supreme Court’s State Bar Court.
