

CHARLES I. DOLGINER, ESQ.

Mediator/Arbitrator

Charles Dolginer has been an active mediator and arbitrator, resolving a large array of civil disputes, since 1993. Mr. Dolginer is known to be forthright, accurate in his assessment of case values, and possessed of strong settlement capabilities, averaging in the ninety-eighth percentile of settlement rates. He specializes in personal injury matters, but his expertise in medical malpractice and products liability has also made him a much sought-after neutral for complex disputes.

PRACTICE AREAS

Personal injury, medical malpractice, legal malpractice, products liability, real estate, aviation, civil trials, employment and auto v. auto.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION EXPERIENCE

A seasoned neutral who is readily selected by both plaintiffs and defense, Charles Dolginer's knowledge of personal injury was acquired through 35 years of practice; as defense counsel for three and a half years, and then as a plaintiff's attorney with the firm of Stone, Dolginer and Wenzel. As a top-rated attorney and neutral, he has handled thousands of personal injury and other tort matters, from the most simple to the most devastating.

Mr. Dolginer's tenacity, his strong character, and his keen insight have put him on the short list of many top firms. He is known for simply getting the job done.

He has been a prominent member of several area bar associations and has maintained an enduring commitment to organizations that provide legal services to the economically disadvantaged.
